Sparemitrr is new way of how automobile spare industry will witness in future.

Sparemitrr Foundation

Amit Khatri, Founder of Sparemitrr, started automobile spare parts business from Sangli in the year 2001. With the pace of time, he got experience in various segments of automobile industry including spare parts, running a service centre to manufacturing of brake discs and drums. This business touched a nationwide network with owned brand in Lubricant.

During this journey of running on the nail-road, we faced various challenges. Sparemitrr, is the thought baby of how to confront these challenges.

Sparemitrr is an idea where the basic foundation of traditional Spare parts business is transformed into more interactive conglomerate of B2B with Franchise Advantage. We enabled a cutting-edge eCommerce tool to accelerate the pace of the company.

Sparemitrr have a very strong presence in West Maharashtra and Karnataka State.

MISSION
